

Transportation
Ginny Bear
10/16/2017

Modes of transport:

Foot, car, ferry, light rail, plane, boat, bicycle.

Scheduling:

Don Galt scheduled each appointment for six months from each tuning
Ginny sends postcards kept in a tickler file for a year and the month from the time of tuning.
Phone calls are productive but take time and intrude of other's schedules.
Email reminders produce a good percentage of results.

Timing:

Some people like early appointments, even as early as 7:00 am.
Others want evening tunings when they return from work.
Weekends and holidays are also days when people are home and work traffic is light.

Geography.

Where are you going? What is your work zone? How far are you willing to travel?
Ed & Joe charge for mileage for over thirty minutes, and even $100 more for an hour or more.
Are you willing to do service call-backs?

Navigation:

Thomas Brothers Maps are no longer printed.
Printed map books are still available.
Mapquest
Garmin
Waze: people actively update you with traffic, construction, police, etc.
GPS on smart phone
Heavy rain will weaken the GPS signal and can mess up the directions.
